Smallpox Reunion at CDC, 11-13 July 2008

Please note that a special session on SEC2010 will take place in the CDC auditorium at 1:30 pm on July 12 following the morning's scientific presentations. This SEC2010 session will acquaint you with SEC2010 and allow you to ask questions on what is happening.

JOINT PRESS RELEASE coming soon....

WHO and Emory's Global Health Institute will soon be announcing their collaboration to commemorate one of the greatest public health achievements of the 20th Century – the Global Eradication of Smallpox. This unprecedented achievement will be commemorated at the 63rd World Health Assembly (WHA) in May 2010. Emory University is playing a vital role as host of the SEC2010 Secretariat which is supporting activities leading to the May 2010 commemoration marking 30 years since the WHO Commission declared the earth free of smallpox.
